COMPONENTS OF THE IELTS TEST

Listening : 30 Minutes

You have to answer questions given to you, by listening to a recording of a conversation between two persons and figuring out the answers from them.

Reading : 60 Minutes

You will be given a question paper with different exercises on it. You have to perform tasks like skim the details for answers, read for the main idea, understand the argument and the author's opinion.

Writing: 60 Minutes

You will be given two writing tasks. One will be to write an essay in response to a point of view, topic or problem. The other will be to explain a table, graph etc. or write a letter on the issue given.

Speaking: 15 Minutes

You will be asked to introduce yourself and answer some personal questions. After that, the examiner will give you a topic, on which you have to speak for 2 minutes. You will be given time to prepare for the topic.

Note: Listening and Speaking are same for both General and Academic Tests. While the Reading and Writing sections will vary for the two types of tests.

Total Test Time: 2 hours,45 minutes
